The 85-story Panorama is the tallest building in Miami at 868 feet, snatching the title from the four Seasons Hotel, which reigned at 789 feet.

Panorama, the latest high-profile project by Tibor Hollo's Florida East Coast Realty, aims to be a city within a city with 821 rental apartments—90 percent will have water views. Residences range from 1,100-square-foot one-bedroom units to three-bedroom with more than 2,100 square feet. Rent starts at about $2,500 for one-bedrooms with dens. Move-ins are expected in March.

Amenities include the "Muse

Room" for live-music sessions; three private movie theaters, a 52nd-story restaurant and lounge, a 22nd-story sun deck, a yoga/Pilates studio, a spa, a steam room, fitness center and pet spa.
