AUSTIN HOILO

Austin Hollo joined FECR in 2009, becoming the third generation of the Hollo family to be welcomed into the company. Named as Senior Vice President, Austin quckly has become a valued member of the team, focusing on the development of upcoming projects, the marketing and positioning of existing properties, and the coordination of property management and leasing activities, as well as the company's strategic vision, day-to-day administration and operations, and business development. Further, Austin is integrally involved in all financing efforts, oversees the company's risk management and insurance portfolio, and is responsible for underwriting and evaluating any real estate acquisitions and investments.

Austin graduated from the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis in 2007, with BSBAs in Finance and Marketing, as well as a minor in Organizational Psychology. Prior to joining FECR, he spent two years as an analyst in the Real Estate Finance and Servicing Group at LNR Partners, Inc. in Miami Beach, Florida, working on the acquisition, surveillance, servicing, and disposition of Commercial Mortgage-Backed Securities (CMBS).

Additionally, Austin serves as Past Chair of the New Leaders Taskforce and Member of the Board of Directors and Funding/ Development Committee for the Miami-Dade Beacon Council, Executive Committee Member and Co-Chair of Development for the United Way of Miami-Dade Young Leaders, Director on BBVA's Miami Advisory Board, and Board of Advisors Member for the Center for Leadership at Florida International University. He is a member of the Developing Leaders Group for the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties South Florida Chapter, the Young Leaders Group for the Urban Land Institute of Southeast Florida, and the Young Professionals of the Lighthouse for the Miami Lighthouse for the Blind and Visually Impaired. Austin also was selected as one of Brickell Magazine's Top 20 Professionals Under 40 for 2017 and Miami Today's Achiever Profiles for 2020.